

A D-BOY'S VIGIL

While I empathize with the plight of the d-boy, I rarely if ever agree with it. Please understand the difference:

It's the melodious,

thoughts of Thelonious.

Got ya boy odious,

feelin' rather felonious.

They don't know:

it's just to get up in dem fallopians,

sending semen to spread some hope, again.

High off that dope, again.

Back against the ropes, again.

Gotta go to court, again.

Can't be VIEWED as a fuckin' scapegoat, again.

Here we go, again.

Gotta push this dope for them,

got to make sure that the L-O know of him.

Who else they quick to go and quote, but: HIM?

two for fifteen.
