Thank God for @CeliesDaughter.
Otherwise, I would be all the way
outta the loop.

KARLA simultaneously searches the cable news and local news channels seeking information about the death of Peter Green, the young man referenced by [REDACTED]

KARLA (CONT'D)

All this coverage of immigrant children being detained at the border...nothing about Green. Either they don't know, don't show, or just don't care about what's goin' on in the Deep Morgan.

KARLA continues oscillating between reading and searching on her laptop and channel searching on the television as regards finding information about the murder of [REDACTED]. She reads the Tweets from [REDACTED] aloud.

...she retweetin' @Bruh. "I JUST SAW SOMEONE DIE OMPG..."Its blood all over the street, niggas protesting nshit...There is police tape all over my building. I am stuck in here omg."

KARLA continues to search [REDACTED] timeline in the effort to discover the beginning of the thread.
